"Serious about wine? A trip through the South West reveals a surprise hidden in the woods" "

It is in fact an Enomatic wine dispenser machine, not one, but six of them. Each machine dispenses eight bottles meaning Tall Timbers officially has WA's biggest wine offering under argon.

*Add to that, its extensive wine list has every wine – yes, every wine – sold by the glass. We reckon each Enomatic costs about $20,000, so that's $120,000 right there.
Serious investment."*

Rob Broadfield
